EMPLOYMENT

Gall's award-winning team of employment lawyers advise on contentious employment law matters, providing advice to and acting for employers and employees on a range of issues including:

- Post-termination restrictions (e.g. restrictive covenants on non-compete, non-solicitation of employees and non-solicitation of clients)
- Internal investigations, SFC regulatory investigations and disciplinary issues
- Redundancy issues
- Termination and separation issues
- Injunctions – applying for and defending injunctions to prohibit use of confidential information and enforce post-termination restrictions
- Dismissals
- Breach of contract
- Discrimination claims
- Legal proceedings from the Labour Tribunal to Court of Final Appeal

We provide legal advice on ground-breaking, complex employment law disputes and are often referred work from other law firms where they are unable to act owing to conflicts of interest. As an independent firm we have the ability and experience to litigate against large financial institutions.

Senior Partner Nick Gall has extensive experience in advising on all aspects of the employment relationship. He has acted for publicly listed companies, senior employees, the Hong Kong Government, the US Government, major
